

Commission on Human Rights & Opportunities

Fair and Impartial Policing Panel Discussion

Racial profiling and issues of mistrust between police officers and the communities they protect continue to be an issue in Connecticut just as they are all over the nation. Join us for an interactive discussion on these issues and what solutions can be found not just by police but also by the public they serve.

Gail Hardy, State's Attorney

David Rosado, Chief of Police for the City of Hartford (invited)

Jason Thody, Assistant Chief of Police for the City of Hartford

Neil Dryfe, Chief of Police for the Town of Cheshire

Evelyn Richardson, Daughters of Eve

Andrew Clark, CTRP3 (invited)

Cheryl Sharp, CHRO Deputy Director
Moderator

Date: Monday, October 22, 2018

Time: 5:00 — 7:00

Location: Room 1E of the Legislative Office Building
300 Capitol Ave, Hartford, CT 06106